

Work On Wheels Forum
March 22, 2006

Participating Businesses:

UPS	FedEx
U.S. Army	AT & T
CalTrans	U.S. Air Force
Sparklett's	HelpingHand Relocation
Thermo King	COX Communications
So. California Gas Co.	Bejac Corporation
Tom's Truck Center	Coastline Equipment
Knott's Berry Farm	OC Transit Authority
Laidlaw Education Svcs	Costa Mesa Fire Dept
OC Animal Control	Animal Ambulance
Lynch Ambulance	CHOC Ambulance
OC Sheriff's Dept	Costa Mesa Police Dept
South Coast Toyota	Street Scene Equipment
Ability Center	National Safety Council
Caliber Collision Centers

Being able to try an earthmover is a guy's dream come true, thanks to Coastline Equipment.

CHOC provides information about working in the medical industry.

Students find out what it takes to go up into the lifts on the CalTrans trucks.

Rio Hondo College showcased cars as a part of their auto repair exhibit.

Caliber Collision Centers drew a crowd at their booth showing the auto repair industry.

Auto design was featured at the Saddleback College exhibit.

Costa Mesa Fire Department gives students a close up look at the equipment.

One of the popular exhibits was the UPS booth.

The colorful OCTA exhibit attracted attention and interest in the transportation industry.

Students check out surveyor's equipment at the CalTrans exhibit.